

How to post a new discussion question or topic

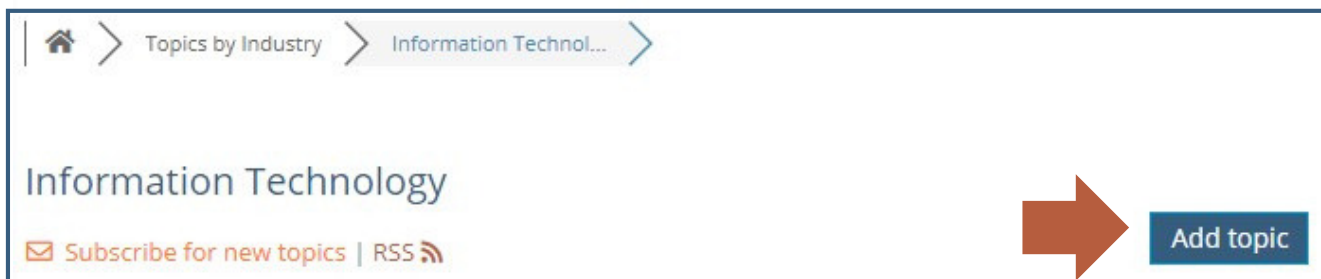

1. From the Patina Connects homepage, decide which Topic by Industry best suits your question.
2. For this example, "Information Technology" is the most relevant. Click the Topic by Industry title.

The screenshot shows a navigation menu with the following items:

- Information Technology (selected, with a red arrow pointing to it)
- 2 6
- Recent Topics ^
- ERP Implementations (2 weeks ago By Hank Zupn...)
- Artificial Intelligence (2 weeks ago By David Gra...)

3. Click the "Add Topic" button to add a new discussion question.

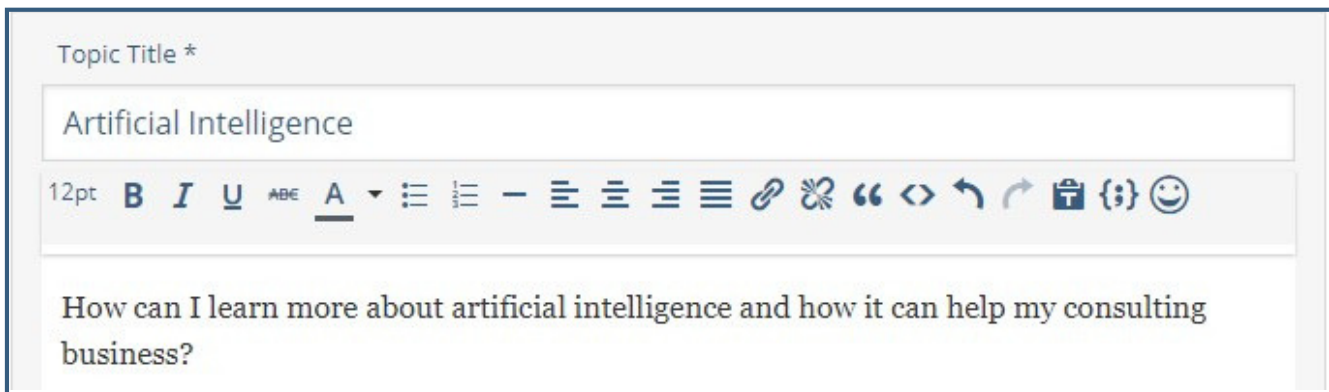

The screenshot shows the breadcrumb trail: Home > Topics by Industry > Information Technol... >

The page title is "Information Technology".

There is a "Subscribe for new topics | RSS" link and an "Add topic" button (highlighted with a red arrow).

4. Type your question with a relevant topic title. The topic title is the subject of your post.
